New York Times Review

Simple pine tables and stools outside offer a rustic counterpoint to the 300-euro sunglasses and trim Ann Demeulemeester tank tops worn by the style-conscious crews sitting at them. The menu swings in the same range – from hearty stoofvlees (savory beef stew) to tuna steak served rare with mint pesto.

The food is a great mix. You get excellent value for this price. Watch out because it can be crowded!

We'd been told to go for the food but were equally pleased by the ambiance and service. Great steak tartare and stoofvlees. We've been travelling to Antwerp for 18 years for business and Chez Fred has quickly become our favourite. Well priced.
